

Conducting Past Life Regressions

YES. A past life regression intensive for soul seekers and spiritual therapists who want to learn the basics of past life recall. An understanding of hypnosis will be useful but not necessary. More experienced therapists can broaden their skills in the area of past life therapy. The intensive will be experiential in that Stephen will demonstrate specific techniques on volunteers, and then the students will conduct regressions on each other – supervised, of course, to assure a smooth and successful experience. Allow soul a voice.

* I will supply hypnotic scripts. (I have translations in German, Slovene and Croatian - just ask)
